

In these tight times, with more demands on the public purse than can be met, and with “stealing” of funds from municipalities, why in the world is the legislature considering funding the new ball park in Hartford. Even if they are bonded funds, they will have to be paid back with interest over the next twenty years. At least this will give rise to a new saying, “kicking the ball down the road”.

Fillmore McPherson
First Selectman
Town of Madison